MISSION
Strengthen Families and Build Vibrant Communities in Washington, DC.

CORE VALUES
Our work reflects the needs of Washington, DC in that we are:
- Collaborative
- Committed
- Flexible
- Innovative
- Passionate
- Responsive
As we celebrate 20 years of service in the community, we honor and thank those who have contributed to the first 20 years of our story and to this extraordinary occasion!

We honor our founding partners: Community Preservation and Development Corporation, Edgewood Management Corporation, and Beacon House Community Ministries; our founding funders: Child and Family Services Agency and The Community Partnership for the Prevention of Homelessness; our resident leaders; and our city officials who have championed the Healthy Families Thriving Communities Collaboratives in Washington, DC.

E/BFSC is thankful for our current Board members and staff, and those who have served throughout our 20 year journey. Your dedication over the past 20 years is unmatched; and we look forward to deepening and expanding our efforts in the community to strengthen families and children.

We are grateful to the many sponsors, presented in this book, who have made this wonderful celebration a reality!

Finally, we want to thank our families who have trusted us to provide support, guidance and assistance. It is your resilience, determination and success that inspires us on a daily basis.

Tonight we celebrate all of you, as well as the countless other stakeholders who have supported E/BFSC for the past 20 years. Once again, thank you for being a part of our story!

Kevin Mullone
Legacy Award Recipient

Kevin Mullone moved to the Washington, DC area in 2001 from Louisiana after graduating from college. He began his career as a public school educator, teaching science to middle and high school students. During his teaching career, Kevin grew fond of the District of Columbia, and established residency. After teaching for five years, Kevin became a consultant in corporate America, traveling nationally and internationally with a wide array of government and private sector clients. His travels gave him the opportunity to experience a world that many people dream about.

Over the course of his career, Kevin made the decision to pursue a Master’s in Business Administration at the University of Maryland University College, and joined the Defense Security Service where he is currently employed. Kevin purchased his first home in Washington, DC’s Langdon Park Community in 2010 and co-founded the Langdon Park Community Association in 2015 with two neighbors. Kevin is currently the President of this grass roots organization, which advocates on behalf of the neighborhood.

E/BFSC is proud to honor Kevin Mullone with the 1st Annual Louvenia Williams Legacy Award because he exemplifies the mission of E/BFSC, and the legacy of community involvement established by Ms. Williams. E/BFSC gained momentum and strength due to the resident leaders who understood the needs of the community, families and children. Kevin is truly an example of a resident who organizes his community around issues that impact children and families. He undertands the importance of partnerships to create safe, nurturing and vibrant communities for all residents.

LOUVENIA WILLIAMS

On today we honor you.

You wear different titles in our family, so to our Sister, Mom, Aunt, Grandmother, Sister-in-Law and Cousin congratulations. We are so very proud of you; words cannot express our Joy regarding this celebration of 20 years of Edgewood/Brookland Family Support Collaborative in the community of Washington DC. The vision that the Lord inspired in you over 20 years ago has truly come to pass. Our Mother, the late Ora Lee Williams-Haywood is definitely smiling down from heaven, so very proud of her fourth child, the one who is truly the light in our family reaching beyond the walls of the family willing to help so many. For the bible declares in Matthew 5:16 “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.”

When God made you Louvenia (Vaughn) he spared nothing in terms of love, commitment, endurance, strength beyond measure and a loving and caring heart for others. We know this all too well in our family because your light shines every day in the Williams family. We are all beaming over your successes in life as shown by our presence on today. As we are all from the District of Columbia this is more than an honor, it is also a privilege to be a witness to the great things God has allowed you to accomplish. So Sister and all of your other titles, we salute you with joy, pride and all of our love.

The Williams Family, strong and mighty.

CONGRATULATIONS,
E/BFSC ON 20 YEARS.
